BP appealed alleging the wrong RTP. Claimant accepted BP's RTP so that issue is moot.

BP also alleged the Settlement Program did not properly validate Claimant's revenues. However, the record reflects significant queries made by the Settlement Program to the Claimant requesting more information about Claimant's revenues and/or clarification of issues related to Claimant's P&L statements and Claimant's Sales and Use Tax Returns. The record reflects that Claimant responded promptly to said inquiries and provided the information the Settlement Program requested. BP's appeal on the issue is without merit.

Given the foregoing and the fact that BP's Final Proposal is $0.00, Claimant's Final Proposal is the correct result.
